

COURSE : FINANCIAL MANAGEMENT
LEVEL : LEVEL III
SUBJECT : COURSE STRUCTURE
COURSE CODE : CITA 302

Course Objective

The core of the syllabus is aimed at developing the skill required in supporting managerial decision making. They reflect the core competencies needed for students to satisfy the aim of the paper identified.

COURSE OUTLINE

Week 1 -10	Financial Management Objectives, Financial Management Environment, Management Of Working Capital, Sources Of Finance, Capital Appraisal Investment, Costing Systems And Techniques, Standard Costing And Variance Analysis, Budgeting And Budgetary Control, Performance Measurement.
Week 11 – 16	The Economic Environment I & II, The Nature And Scope Of Financial Management, The Financial Management Framework, Management Of Working Capital I & II, Management Of Working Capital III, Sources Of Finance: Small And Medium Sized Enterprises (SMES), Equity Financing, Debt And Near – Debt Financing, Capital Structure Decision, Investment Decisions
Week 17 – 22	Interest And Discounting, Investment Appraisal Using DCF Methods, Project Appraisal Allowing For Inflation And Taxation, Project Appraisal Allowing For Risk, Capital Rationing, Leasing Decisions, Costing Systems And Techniques, Standard Costing I & II, Budgetary Planning And Control I, II, & III, Quantitative Aids To Budgeting, Indices, Performance Measurement